

Speaker Introduction

Please note this is merely a guide for the MC. It does not need to read verbatim.

Good morning. Our keynote speaker this morning has spent over 18 years helping organisations move beyond surviving to actually thriving in a world that won't slow down for anyone.

When leaders want to establish new best practice in their digital journey, course correct their teams to a future minded focus or inspire with the latest learnings and advance in technology, they call Mushambi (moo-shom-b) Mutuma (moo-2-ma)

He co-founded a digital product lab that was acquired in its 10th year, led Commerce and Innovation at Accenture, and has worked with the likes of Facebook, Salesforce, Amazon, Coca-Cola, Shell, Barloworld and NTT Data.

He is a two-time author and one of the most sought-after voices globally on adaptability, AI and the future of work.

Please welcome to the stage Mushambi (moo-shom-b) Mutuma (moo-2-ma)
